Copy Act of Parliament to remove certain difficulties in the disposition of copyhold estates by will.
Chap. CXCL. 55 Geo. 3 12th July 1815.

Note in margin: Disposition by the will of copyhold estates made effectual without previous surrenders to the uses thereof.

Whereas by the custom of certain manors copyhold estates of such manors pass by the last will and testament of the copyhold tenants thereof declaring the uses of surrenders made for that purpose. And whereas much inconvenience has arisen from the necessity of making such surrenders. For remedy [remedy] whereof may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same. That in all cases where by the custom of any manor in England and Ireland any copyhold tenant of such a manor may by his or her last will and testament dispose of or appoint his or her copyhold tenements the same been having surrendered to such uses as should be declared by such last will and testament every disposition a change made or to be made by any such will or testament by any person who shall die after the passing of this Act of any such copyhold tenements or any right title or interest in or to the same shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes although no surrender shall have been made to the use of the last will and testament of such person, as the same would have been if a surrender had been made to the use of such a will.

Note in margin: Persons admitted under testamentary dispositions to pay the like fees as would have been payable on such surrenders.

Provided also and it is hereby further enacted that no person entitled or claiming to be the entitled to the copyhold lands tenements or hereditaments in consequence of any testamentary disposition shall be entitled to be admitted to the same by virtue of anything in this Act contained except upon payment of all such stamp duties, fees and sums of money as would have been lawfully due and payable in respect of the surrendering of such copyhold lands, tenements or hereditaments to the use of such will or in respect of the presenting, registering or enrolling of such a surrender had the same lands, tenements and hereditaments been surrendered to the use of the will of the persons so disposing of the same all such stamp duties fees or sums of money due as aforesaid to be paid in addition to the stamp duties, fees or sums of money due or payable on the admission of such person so entitled or claiming to be entitled to the same copyhold lands, tenements and hereditaments and the stamp duties to be affixed to the copy of the admission.

Note in margin: This Act not to invalidate devises of copyhold

3. Provided always and it is hereby enacted and declared that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed deemed or taken at law or in equity, to render invalid or ineffectual any devise or disposition of any copyhold lands, tenements and hereditaments or any right title or interest in or to the copyhold lands tenements or hereditaments which would be valid or effectual if this Act had not been made or to render valid and effectual any devise or disposition of any copyhold lands, tenements or hereditaments or any right of title or interest in or to any copyhold lands, tenements or hereditaments which would be invalid or ineffectual if a surrender had been made to the use of the last will and testament of the person attempting to dispose of the same by will anything therein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

For which they hath paid for their fine and entry as in the margin [£2 4s 2d], and are therefore accordingly admitted tenants.

Reeth and Healaugh

At this same court came James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson, copyhold or customary tenants of this manor, the said James Hutchinson appearing by Mr George Robinson, his attorney, by virtue of a letter of attorney under the hand and seal of the said James Hutchinson bearing date the twenty second day of May last, and the said Anthony Hutchinson in his proper person, and in open court surrendered into the hands of the lord of the manor aforesaid according to the custom of the said manor by the hands and acceptance of his steward the following messuages, dwelling houses, tenements and premises, namely Near Close, Far Close, Middle Close, Stripe, Low Pasture, one fire house and stable, Hall Garth with a cowhouse thereon, one parcel of ground called Court Garth, one close called Round Close, one parcel of ground called Weston Hall Head, one close called West Intack otherwise Castle Intack with the appurtenances, situate and being at or within the territories of Reeth and Healaugh in the said manor, of the ancient yearly fineable customary rent of 4s 1d, to the use and behoof of John Dinsdale, his heirs and assigns for ever; to which said John Dinsdale, here personally present in court, the lord of the manor aforesaid by his said steward did grant seizen thereof. To have and to hold the said tenements and all and singular other the premises before mentioned with the appurtenances unto him, the said John Dinsdale, his heirs and assigns forever in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance, according to the custom of the said manor, yielding and paying the rents, duties and services therefore due, and of right accustomed; but he paid no fine to the lord because his estate was only had for a further assurance and his fealty was pardonned and so having always the right of the lord the said John Dinsdale was admitted tenant thereof in form aforesaid.

And afterwards at the same court came John Langhorne in his proper person and complained against the said John Dinsdale in a plea of land (that is to say) of the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in Reeth and Healaugh aforesaid and made protestation to prosecute his said plaint in this court in the form and nature of a writ of right patent at the common Law according to the custom of the said manor, and thereupon found pledges to prosecute the same in form aforesaid, that is to say John Doe and Richard Roe and desired process according to the custom of the said manor against the said John Dinsdale returnable here at this court without delay and it was granted; and thereupon the said John Dinsdale being present here in court freely offered himself to answer unto the said John Langhorne without further process to him directed; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against the said John Dinsdale the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in Reeth and Healaugh aforesaid within this manor and within the jurisdiction of this court holden for this manor by copy of Court Roll of the said manor as his right and inheritance according to the custom of the said manor and whereof he was seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in the time of peace of our lord the king that now is by taking the profits to the value of twenty pounds and that his right was such he offered ?? and thereupon the said John Dinsdale came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne when ?? and his seizen ?? the whole ?? and whatsoever ?? and especially of the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance and vouched to warrant the premises with their appurtenances the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson who being likewise here present in court as before mentioned also appeared freely without further process unto them directed; and the said tenements with the appurtenances unto him did warrant; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against them, the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson, tenants by ????? warranty aforesaid the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and whereof they said they were seized in their demesne of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in the time of peace in the time of the present lord the king by taking the profits thereof to the value ?? and that his right was such he offered ?? and thereupon the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson, tenants by their warranty aforesaid, came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne when ?? and his seizen of which seizen ?? the whole ?? and whatsoever ?? and especially of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right, according to the custom of the said manor, and vouched to warrant the premises with the appurtenances Ralph May who being likewise then present in court also appeared freely without further process unto him directed and the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances unto him did warrant; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against him the said Ralph May tenant by his warranty aforesaid the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and whereof he said he was seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in time of peace in the time of our present lord the king by taking the profits thereof to the value of ?? and that his right was such he offered ?? and thereupon the said Ralph May, tenant by his warranty aforesaid, came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne when ?? and his seizen of which seizen ?? the whole ?? and whatsoever ?? and especially of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance and put himself upon the homage of the said court in the place and stead of the great assize at the common law and prayed a recognition thereupon to be had whether he had more right to have and to hold the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances as tenant thereof by his warranty so as he now holdeth the said, or the said John Langhorne to have and to hold the same tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances so as he above demanded the same and thereupon the said John Langhorne prayed licence to in???? until five of the clock in the afternoon of the same day and it was granted and the same time was given to the said Ralph May then ??, and afterwards at the said hour of five in the afternoon of the same day the said John Langhorne came again into court but the said Ralph May returned not there into court, although he was solemnly called, but departed in contempt of court and made default, whereupon in full and open court further proclamation was made that if anyone laid claim to the premises before mentioned he should come in before final judgement shall be given, but none came, therefore according to the custom of the said manor it was considered by the court there that the said John Langhorne should recover his seizen against the said John Dinsdale of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances, to hold to him and his heirs, quit of the said John Dinsdale and his heirs and of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson and their heirs and of the said Ralph May and his heirs, and that the said John Dinsdale have of the lands and tenements of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson within the jurisdiction ?? to the value of ?? and that the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson have of the lands and the tenements of the said Ralph May within the jurisdiction ?? to the value ?? and the said Ralph May be in mercy? and thereupon the said John Langhorne prayed of the lord of the manor aforesaid a precept to be directed to Edmund Alderson Knowles, the bailiff or minister of the court aforesaid, to cause him the said John Langhorne to have full seizen of the premises with the appurtenances returnable then at the said court without delay, and it was granted. And afterwards at the same court came Edmund Alderson Knowles, the bailiff or minister of this court, and returned that he, by virtue of the said precept to him therefore directed, the same day had caused the said John Langhorne to have full seizen of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances as by the said precept to him therefore directed was commanded; by virtue of which recovery and seizen thereupon had as aforesaid the said John Langhorne entered into the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances and was thereof seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance; and being so seized by virtue of the recovery and execution had and made in form aforesaid the lord of the said manor out of his special favor [sic] for the better approbation ratification and confirmation of all and singular the said premises then in full? and court by his said steward did give and deliver unto the said John Langhorne of the said premises with the appurtenances full seizen to have and to hold the said tenements and all and singular the premises with their appurtenances unto him the said John Langhorne, his heirs and assigns for ever according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance by the rents duties and services therefore due and of right accustomed but he paid no fine to the lord because this recovery was only had for further assurance and his fealty was pardoned, and so having always the right of the lord the said John Langhorne was admitted tenant thereof in form aforesaid.

And afterwards at the same court in their proper persons came the said John Dinsdale, John Langhorne and Ralph May and surrendered into the hands of the lord of the manor aforesaid by the rod? according to the custom of the said manor, by the acceptance of his said steward, the said tenements and premises above mentioned with their appurtenances, so recovered as aforesaid, and also released all their right title and interest of in and to the same to the use and behoof of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson, their heirs and assigns forever; to which, said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson in full court the lord of the manor aforesaid, by his said steward, did grant thereof seizen to have and to hold the said tenements and premises before mentioned with their appurtenances unto them, the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson, their heirs and assigns forever of the lord of the manor aforesaid as tenants in common and not as joint tenants according to the custom of the said manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance by the rents duties services therefore due and of right accustomed but they paid no fine to the lord because this recovery was only had for further assurance, and they had aforetime made their fealty and so, saving always the right of the lord, the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson were admitted tenants thereof in form aforesaid.

Reeth

At this Court came James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson copyhold or customary tenants of this Manor the said James Hutchinson appearing by Mr George Robinson his attorney by virtue of a letter of attorney under the hand and seal of the said James Hutchinson bearing date 22nd May last and the said Anthony Hutchinson in his proper person and in open Court surrendered into the hands of the Lord of the Manor aforesaid according to the custom of the said Manor by the hand and acceptance of his said Steward the following hereditaments and premises namely one parcel of ground called Right Intack, one parcel called Intack, one equal fourth part of a parcel of ground called Church Intack now in three closes and three equal fourth parts of another parcel of ground called West Intack (now in one close) with the appurtenances situate and being at or within the territories of Reeth in the said Manor of the ancient yearly fineable customary rent of 1s 10½d. To the use and behoof of John Dinsdale his heirs and assigns forever to which said John Dinsdale here personally present in full Court the Lord of the Manor aforesaid by his said Steward did grant seizen thereof. To have and to hold the said tenements and all and singular other the premises before mentioned with the appurtenances unto him the said John Dinsdale his heirs and assigns forever in the nature of a copy hold or customary estate of inheritance according to the custom of the said Manor yielding and paying the rents duties and services therefore due and of right accustomed but he paid no fine to the Lord because his estate was only held for a further assurance and his fealty was pardoned, and so having always the right of the Lord the said John Dinsdale was admitted tenant thereof in form aforesaid. And afterwards at the same Court came John Langhorne in his proper person and complained against the said John Dinsdale in a plea of land (that is to say) of the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in Reeth aforesaid and made protestation to prosecute his said plaint in this Court in the form and nature of a court of right patent at the Common Law according to the custom of the said Manor and thereupon found pledges to prosecute the same in form aforesaid, that is to say, John Doe and Richard Roe and desired process according to the custom of the said Manor against the said John Dinsdale returnable here at this Court without delay and it was granted, and thereupon the said John Dinsdale being present here in Court freely offered himself to answer unto the said John Langhorne without further process unto him directed; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against the said John Dinsdale the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in Reeth aforesaid within this Manor and within the jurisdiction of this Court holden for this Manor by copy of Court Roll of the said Manor as his right and inheritance according to the custom of the said Manor and whereof he was seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in the time of peace of our Lord the King that now is by taking the profits to the value of twenty pounds and that his right was such he offered the same and thereupon the said John Dinsdale came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne when the same and his seizen the same the whole the same and whatsoever the same and especially of the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance and vouched to warrant the premises with their appurtenances the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson who being likewise here present in Court as before mentioned also appeared freely without further process unto them directed; and the said tenements with the appurtenances unto him did warrant; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against them the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson tenants by their warranty aforesaid the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and whereof they said they were seized in their demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in time of peace in the time of the present Lord the King by taking the profits thereof to the value the same and that his right was such, he offered the same and thereupon the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson tenant by their warranty aforesaid came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne the same and his seizen of which seizen the same the whole the same and whatsoever the same and especially of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor and vouched to warrant the premises with the appurtenances Ralph May who being likewise then present in Court also appeared freely without further process unto him directed; and the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances unto him did warrant; whereupon the said John Langhorne came and demanded against him the said Ralph May tenant by his warranty aforesaid the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and whereof he said he was seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance in time of peace in the time of our present Lord the King by taking the profits thereof to the value of the same and that his right was such, he offered the same and thereupon the said Ralph May tenant by his warranty aforesaid came and denied the right of the said John Langhorne when the same and his seizen of which seizen the same the whole the same and whatsoever the same and especially of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance and [placed] himself upon the homage of the said Court in the place and stead of the great assizes at the common law and prayed a recognition thereupon to be had whether in kind nor right to have and to hold the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances as tenant thereof by his warranty so as he now heldeth the said or the said John Langhorne to have and to hold the same tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances so as he above demanded the same and thereupon the said John Langhorne prayed license to impart until five of the clock in the afternoon of the same day and it was granted and the same time was given to the said Ralph May there the same and afterwards at the same hour of five in the afternoon of the same day the said John Langhorne came again into Court but the said Ralph May returned not there into Court although he was solemnly called but departed in contempt of the Court and made default whereupon in full and open Court public proclamation was made that if anyone laid claim to the premises before mentioned he should come in before final judgement shall be given but none came therefore according to the custom of the said Manor it was considered by the Court there that the said John Langhorne should recover his seizen against the said John Dinsdale of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances to hold to him and his heirs quit of the said John Dinsdale and his heirs and of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson and their heirs and of the said Ralph May and his heirs and that the said John Langhorne have of the lands and tenements of the said John Dinsdale within the jurisdiction by to the value and that the said John Dinsdale have of the lands and tenements of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson within the jurisdiction the same to the value the same and that the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson have of the lands and the tenements of the said Ralph May within the jurisdiction the same and to the value the same and the said Ralph May be in mercy; and thereupon the said John Langhorne prayed of the Lord of the Manor aforesaid a precept to be directed to Edmund Alderson Knowles the bailiff or minister of the Court aforesaid to cause him the said John Langhorne to have full seizen of the premises with the appurtenances returnable then at the said Court without delay and it was granted. And afterwards at the same Court came Edward Alderson Knowles the bailiff or minister of this Court and returned that he by virtue of the said precept to him therefore directed the same day had caused the said John Langhorne to have full seizen of the said tenements and premises before mentioned with the appurtenances as by the said precept to him therefore directed was commanded; by virtue of which recovery and seizen thereupon had as aforesaid the said John Langhorne entered into the said tenements and premises above mentioned with the appurtenances and was thereof seized in his demesne as of fee and right according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance and being so seized by virtue of the recovery and execution had and made in form aforesaid the Lord of the said Manor out of his special favour for the better approbation ratification and confirmation of all and singular the said premises then in full Court by his said Steward did give and deliver unto the said John Langhorne of the said premises with the appurtenances full seizen to have and to hold the said tenements and all and singular the premises with their appurtenances unto him the said John Langhorne his heirs and assigns forever according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance by the rents duties and services therefore due and of right accustomed but he paid no fine to the Lord because this recovery was only had for further assurance, and his fealty was pardoned; and so having always the right of the Lord, the said John Langhorne was admitted tenant thereof in form aforesaid.

And afterwards at the same Court in their proper persons came the said John Langhorne, John Dinsdale and Ralph May and surrendered into the hands of the Lord of the Manor aforesaid by the nod according to the custom of the said Manor by the acceptance of his said Steward the said tenements and premises above mentioned with their appurtenances so recovered as aforesaid; and also released all their right title and interest of and in to the same, to the use and behoof of the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson their heirs and assigns forever; to which said

James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson in full Court the Lord of the Manor aforesaid by his said Steward did grant thereof seizen to have and to hold the said tenements and premises before mentioned with their appurtenances unto them the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson their heirs and assigns forever of the Lord of the Manor aforesaid as tenants in common and not as joint tenants according to the custom of the said Manor in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance by the rents duties and services therefore due and of right accustomed, but they paid no fine to the Lord because their recovery was only had for further assurance, and they had aforetime made their fealty, and so saving always the right of the Lord the said James Hutchinson and Anthony Hutchinson were admitted tenants thereof in form aforesaid.

For which he hath paid for his fine and entry as in the margin [10s 0d] and is therefore accordingly admitted tenant.

Muker

To this court came George Cottingham and took of the lord a moiety or half part of one shop with a room over it and one coalhouse and fold yard with the appurtenances, situate and being at or within the territories of Muker in the said manor, of the ancient yearly fineable customary rent of ½d upon Kisdon, which Ann Waistell, a customary tenant of the said manor, at this court surrendered into the hands of the lord in consideration of the sum of nineteen pounds and nineteen shillings to her paid for the purchase thereof. To have and to hold the said premises unto and to the use of the said George Cottingham, his heirs and assigns for ever according to the custom of the said manor, in the nature of a copyhold or customary estate of inheritance. Yielding and paying to the lord of the said manor the yearly rent aforesaid [½d], and all other rents, duties, fines and services due and of right accustomed. For which he hath paid for his fine and entry as in the margin [10d] and is therefore accordingly admitted tenant.

At this court the first proclamation was made for the heirs of Marmaduke Clarkson and George Cottingham to come in and be admitted of the respective copyhold tenements of which they died seized but none came.

Edward Reynoldson sworn Constable for the manor.
